

Frequently Asked Questions

What can the EDC do for your business?

- How to start a business
- Assistance for the retention of your business
- Communicate the needs of your business to the proper county, state and federal entities
- Provide you business plan review
- Assist you with the cities' or county's permitting process
- Your point of contact with financial Institutions
- Identify industry incentives available for your business
- Work with educational institutions for educational needs
- Your liaison with financial institutions, educational partners, local, state and federal agencies
- Site selection

When should your business contact the EDC?

- Existing business concerns
- Looking to start a business
- Know of someone relocating to Pacific County
- Tap into local resources
- County demographics
- Business plan template
- Just not sure who to ask
- Facilitate opportunities for partners to come together
- Connect you with your peers

Resources.
Partnerships.
Facilitation.

"Your single point of contact"

530 Commercial St.
Raymond, WA 98577
(360)875-9330 or (360) 642-9330
www.pacifiedc.org
caruss@pacifiedc.org

Pacific County
Economic Development
Council

YOUR SINGLE POINT OF
CONTACT

